

'Brigadoon' Opens May 10 For Six-Night Run At EC

Opening May 10 for a six-night run in the Campus Theater of El Camino College will be "Brigadoon," the first spring musical to be presented in the new 354-seat campus facility. Subsequent performances will be staged on May 11, 12, 17, 18 and 19.

For the first time in college history, a number of roles have been double cast, according to Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel. Assignment of two performers to a role enables a large number of students to participate in leading parts and proves valuable in case of illness of performers, the educator noted.

The leading role of Fiona MacLaren has been assigned to Lucille Liberatore and Joy Lee Miller. Miss Liberatore will play on May 11, 17, and 19. Melva Grantham and Sandra Yates enact the role of Meg Brockie, with Mrs. Grantham playing on May 11, 12, 18 and 19.

Ronald DeRosier and Hal Jones play the role of Charlie Dalrymple, with DeRosier taking the stage on May 11, 12, and 18.

Leading male roles of Tommy Albright and Jeff Douglas will be played by Robert Chapline and Robert Click, respectively.

Youngsters are experimenting with all types of drugs which can be purchased at drug stores without prescription.

"Drugs and medicines which are improperly used can induce great bodily harm," the juvenile officer stated.

Cook also said that he is investigating the presence of four barbituates which were found in the boys' lavatory at Torrance high school last week.

Summers and the other juvenile were booked on suspicion of armed robbery involving Arnold Rabe, manager of the Hot-N-Tot and Wayfarer in Lomita. The holdup occurred in March of this year.

Summers and a third juvenile were also held for the theft of a cash register from the Perfection Cleaners.

In addition, Summers allegedly admitted the hold-up of Verburg dairy early March when about $200 were stolen.

Needle Marks

Authorities said they inspected the suspect's arms and found a number of needle marks on his left arm. His arrest on suspicion or robbery came about when searchers discovered a fully loaded .32 caliber pistol wrapped in an old sock.

lived here more than 35 years, working for the water and land company that developed the community.

His wife, Lulu, who taught at the Harbor City elementary school, died three years ago.

His only known survivor is a niece, Mrs. Daisy Anderson of Bakersfield.

The body was removed to Gamby Funeral Home, Lomita.
